

READING & WRITING SKILLS PROGRAM

INSTITUTE OF
READING DEVELOPMENT

Developed in partnership with hundreds of universities nationwide

Increase instructional time, boost student outcomes, and address social and emotional learning objectives while addressing student learning gaps

Engaging Instruction with Highly-Trained Teachers

For six weeks, students attend a weekly live online class, participating in engaging book discussions and practicing valuable reading, writing, and comprehension skills. Students also complete interactive lessons between classes that build confidence and grade-level skills.

One-on-One Support

Students have one-on-one support from the IRD teaching staff, who can help instruct and assist students with any ELA or writing assignments.

Research-Based Curriculum

Our research-based curriculum has been successfully used by over 3 million students nationwide and undergoes continuous evidence-based, best-practice development.

Flexible Program Options

Sessions are offered throughout the calendar year, including summer break. We have the scheduling flexibility to accommodate any district's unique needs.

Comprehensive Support

We provide the behind-the-scenes support your district needs, including customized outreach to boost enrollment, program implementation, dedicated technical support, and post-session reporting.

Ideal for Summer
Programming
